

CARD. GIUSEPPE SIRI ELECTED POPE THREE TIMES!

by Dr. Franco Adessa

On December 29, 2004, Mel Gibson paid a visit to Fr. Luigi Villa, at the Institute of Brescia, accompanied by a Canadian and an American journalist.

The sole reason for the meeting was that of the election of Cardinal Giuseppe Siri to the Papacy in the Conclave of 1958.

To the insistent attempts to involve Father on this topic, Father Villa turned to Mel Gibson with these words: «You, with your film, “The Passion of the Christ,” have only done half the work» and, in front of him caught by surprise, he went on to say: «The other half of the work is a movie that you should do and call it: “The Passion of the Church.”»

At this point, Fr. Villa took some papers, which he had prepared for the occasion, and read its contents to the end, without any interruption. It was a list of historical events on the Passion of the Church.

At the end of this reading, Fr. Villa turned to Mel Gibson and said: «And then you could continue with the most recent events dealing with Freemasonry and of its work within the Catholic Church.»

The message was clear: with this ominous Conclave that had thrust open the doors to the Masonic invasion into the Church, why doesn't Mel Gibson make this known to the world, with one of his films, thereby completing the work he had left half-done?

Card. Giuseppe Siri.

When the guests had left the Institute, Fr. Villa pronounced these words to me: «We have another priority: Paul VI.»

Many times he talked to me about this aim that Padre Pio had indicated in his second encounter, and that was the center of his papal mandate: To unmask the traitors at the top of the Church.

One day, however, I reminded him: «In your first encounter with Padre Pio, you were commissioned with the task of defending the Church of Christ from the work of the Ecclesiastical Masonry, when you were discouraged, Padre Pio said: “But you know, and are a friend of Card. Giuseppe Siri.”»

In the years that followed this meeting, Father repeatedly mentioned to me about the election of Card. Siri to the papacy in the conclave of 1958; he spoke of it as a true and absolute fact, only that when it came to the threats exerted against Siri, he simply commented that terrible things happened and that Cardinal was bound to a secret.

Once, I added: «You wrote that Card. Siri was elected pope in the conclave of 1963 and also spoke of threats that had been made to prevent him from sitting once again a second time on the Chair of Peter.»

The text, quoted in the book “Paul VI beatified?” (p. 147), is taken from a writing of Prince Scotersco, first cousin of Prince Borghese, who was the president of the Conclave that elected Montini as Supreme Pontiff; one “writing” that contains the following information about the Conclave of June 21, 1963: «During the Conclave, a Cardinal left the Sistine Chapel, he met with representatives of B’nai B’rith, announcing to them the election of Cardinal Siri. THEY RESPONDED BY SAYING THAT THE PERSECUTION AGAINST THE CHURCH WOULD RESUME IMMEDIATELY. RETURNING TO THE CONCLAVE, HE HAD MONTINI ELECTED POPE»!

In the installments 40-41 of the article “The Secret of the Empty Tomb of Padre Pio”, I reported some quotes from a book by Guy Carr, describing Ugo Montagna, the main architect of the “Montesi case” of 1953, as the Agentur of the Order of Illuminati of Bavaria, in Rome, who had to control Mussolini, but secretly had to steer the Italian politics to the left. During this research, on the subject of the “Empty Tomb,” I discovered that the doctor of Pius XII, Riccardo Galeazzi Lisi, was a close friend of Ugo Montagna, whose method to subject certain persons to his will was corruption and by involving them in Black Masses and Satanic orgies.

Because the principal promoter of the steering of the Italian politics to the left in the Vatican was Mons. Giambattista Montini, who was thrown out of the Secretary of State on November 1, 1954 for betraying Pius XII’s Anti-Communist policy, I submitted to Fr. Villa the possibility of a possible murder of Pius XII. Father told me what was said and what was known in the Holy Office: «We think that Pius XII was killed for two reasons: If Pius XII had lived yet another year and a half, the Masonic world’s plan to place their man, Montini, at the top of the Church would fail. In 1960, Pius XII would certainly have published the Third Secret of Fatima that contained the sentence: “Satan will actually succeed in reaching the top of the Church;” furthermore, Freemasonry could not impose Roncalli, as their “transitional pope,” because at that time he was already ill with cancer and had been given only five years to live. If Pius XII had remained alive for another year and a half, Roncalli could never be elected pope, because the news of his disease would be widespread and would prevent him from getting the necessary votes for his election to the papacy. And Montini would never become Cardinal, nor a Pope.»

It was this conversation to open the doors to several others talks on the subject of the election of Card. Siri to the Papacy in the 1958 Conclave. The decisive moment came when Fr. Villa introduced a topic by telling me of a personal meeting he had, in Genoa, with Siri who proposed to entrust a monastery to him in order to found a seminary that Fr. Villa would direct. Father told me he had to refuse due to the incompatibility of this assignment with his Papal mandate. This account seemed to be designed to convey the idea that Siri’s obligation to secrecy, on what had happened in the Conclave, was not binding in regards to Fr. Villa’s papal mandate received by Pope Pius XII, as he had the right to know all the secrets of the Church relating to the mission entrusted to him.

It was on that occasion that Father Villa told me about the threats used against Card. Siri, or better against Gregory XVII, to prevent him, from sitting on the Chair of Peter: «THEY HAD THREATENED THAT IF HE HAD NOT RETREATED, THEY WOULD HAVE KILLED HIM AND EXTERMINATED HIS WHOLE FAMILY.»

But the story did not seem to come to an end yet.

On another occasion, still on the subject of the election of Card. Siri as Pope, Fr. Villa told me about the Conclave of 1978, which was held after the death of Paul VI. The two contenders were Siri and Benelli. It was a duel that ended with the election of Cardinal Siri. But, again, this time, Siri was forced to retreat, always under pressure of a terrible threat.

Fr. Villa used these words: «If he had not retreated, THEY WOULD

HAVE CREATED A SCHISM IN THE CHURCH.»

On hearing these words, I was reminded of the threat made to Pope Pius XII when, having thrown Montini out of the Secretary of State for treason to papal policy against communism, he decided to lock him up permanently in a monastery.

«The Pope was forced to make other arrangements – Fr. Villa said – only because his enemies had threatened him with CREATING A SCHISM IN THE CHURCH.»

This information on the threats which the enemies of the Church had made to the popes, Gregory XVII and Pius XII, was transmitted to me by Fr. Villa over several years, always with brief but clear sentences. Yet, the meaning of the conclusive words still allowed one to understand that these revelations did not dissipate the severity of the whole problem.

Several times, in fact, with an expression of pain on his face, and in a grave tone, Father Villa told me: «BUT... I HAVE TO TAKE SOME SECRETS TO MY GRAVE!»

A month before the death of Fr. Luigi Villa, however, something strange happened...

Pope Pius XII.
