

The Third Secret of Fatima

On September 25, 1888, following his morning Mass, Pope Leo XIII became traumatized to the point that he collapsed. Those in attendance thought that he was dead. After coming to consciousness, the Pope described a frightful conversation that he had heard coming from near the tabernacle.

The conversation consisted of two voices – voices which Pope Leo XIII clearly understood to be the voices of Jesus Christ and the devil. The devil boasted that he could destroy the Church, if he were granted 75 years to carry out his plan (or 100 years, according to some accounts). The devil also asked permission for “a greater influence over those who will give themselves to my service.” To the devil’s requests, Our Lord reportedly replied: “you will be given the time and the power.”

“The attack on religions is at the core of the revolution.

There must be no letup in the war against religion because as long as religion exists Communism cannot prevail. We must intensify the obliteration of all religions wherever they are being practiced or taught.”

- a statement by Mikhail Gorbachev on 15 December 1987 to a group of communist party officials, cadres and Soviet military personnel in Uzbekistan.

The truth cannot change with time nor is it possible that it would ever be so – for if one would dare to enact such an audacious assertion and demand its acceptance, that would be in total opposition to our true Catholic Apostolic Faith.

In the light of this unchangeable fact we must therefore see the truth always in front of our eyes as it is and no possible compromises nor deviances from it are allowed to us, for if we tried wilfully to do so and continued in it we would no longer have the protection of the truth from the Truth Himself but would have become and easy prey of the father of all lies – the devil himself.

This essential necessity of ours therefore demand of us a careful and most vigorous vigilance of our own actions, words and deeds, trusting not in our own human judgement but leaving it in the most careful hands of the Divine grace, the guiding path of the truth which, if we obey it and follow it in full, cannot possibly deceive us nor itself be deceived.

The beauty of the divine grace is the fact that it entirely comes as a true gift of God, and so it is supernatural in all its attributes, yet at the same time [let us consider this for a moment] this divine help guides all our acts so that we are instructed this way in truth and cannot make a mistake in it and through it. There is another way to understand this truth also – we can look at the truth as a divinely guarded castle or fortress into which no lie can possibly enter, and so the lies and injustices [all coming from the devil himself through his wilful collaborators – i.e. satanic slaves] cannot have any kind of access nor become ever part of this castle [or divinely protected fortress – the truth and justice of God], because what is not of the Truth cannot ever have any part of and with the Truth in truth.

This is the guiding principle that we must always bear in mind – because as our Lord teaches us in the Holy Gospel [St. Mathew 16 : 17] tells us, an evil three cannot produce a good fruit.

Part 1 -- Promotion of the satanic doctrine of Marxism,

Ratzinger's denial of the true Catholic Faith

My dear brothers and sisters in the true Catholic Faith, please before you read the following pages, to be sure to safeguard the purity of your souls, pray at least one Our Father and one Hail Mary and ask Our Lady to guide you through this publication so that the devil would not be able to pervert your understanding while you read it. This is essential and important start for you before you continue reading, or else you will not be able to fully grasp the seriousness of the facts, the truth itself – and ultimately the 3rd Secret of Fatima will not be fully clear to you as such. So please pray before you read any further !

Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger [back then, now Pope Benedict XVI] wrote three books that we will use quotations from as part of our publication, books titled Principles of Catholic Theology [Ignatius Press, San Francisco, CA, United States 1987, The Ratzinger Report [Ignatius Press, 1985 and Crisis in the Church, Catholic Truth Society, London, U.K. 1980].

Let us begin with the Principles of Catholic Theology.

On page 15 Cardinal Ratzinger writes:

“A. What constitutes Christian Faith today ?

The problem

The question of what constitutes Christian faith today ... a question that is always and everywhere being asked. Upon closer reflection one may, nevertheless, conclude that it has not been precisely formulated [as a question that is – ed. note]. The more precise and accurate formulation would be:

With the passing of yesterday, what continues to constitute Christian faith even today ?

....there is apparent in it [in this question – ed. note] a consciousness of the incomparable newness of the present situation, of a change in the world and mankind that cannot be measured by the usual norms of historical change as they have always existed but rather signifies an epochal transformation for which there is no adequate comparison.

....This fact – that something wholly new is happening to man and to the world in a culture in which scientific and technical self-determination is becoming ever more total – is the reason for the crisis that is occurring in a tradition that has no compunction about explaining itself, if need be, in terms of the scientifically proven behavioural patterns of higher animals but can discover no binding force in human history as such and, in consequence, raises afresh the whole question of validity even with respect to tradition-bound institutions like the Catholic Church which seem to be unequivocally characterized by clearly defined norms.

This awareness of change, which is thus the real force behind our question, is in part just a reflection of particular experiences, but it is also product of philosophical movements that have appropriated these experiences and made them the whole structure of reality.

The decisive turning point lies with Hegel, since which being and time have been more and more intertwined in philosophical thinking. Being itself is now regarded as time...the logos becomes itself in history.”

Let us pause for a moment here – when we read terms as ‘scientifically proven behavioural patterns of higher animals’ or ‘question of validity even with respect to tradition-bound institutions like the Catholic Church’ and so forth, the lack of truth in these statements of then Cardinal Ratzinger and the clear insinuating of his to the effect of a direct attack on the divine institution, the Holy Mother Roman Catholic Church, to call a human immortal soul, which is invested with the imprint of divinely given light of reason, separated thus from animals by the grace and divine guidance of God Himself, to call this human soul 'higher animal' and to question directly the divinely established and ever till the end of time guided Holy Mother Church and Her validity is not only a direct attack on God our Lord Himself, but on the whole of Christianity as well...this all coming from the very man who now is entrusted [so it seems] with the very task of protecting these truths from all attacks of the enemies, visible and invisible.

How can this contradiction be reconciled in any other possible way but to have to conclude that he himself is one of these enemies, employed wilfully in the service of the devil to destroy the true Catholic Church, a satanic task that will never be, because, as the Divine Redeemer promised [gospel of St. Matthew 16 : 18], "the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" – the Church of all time, the Catholic Church.

God is the truth and as such He cannot and will not change ever, so that being itself is not of itself capable of being regarded as time or rather [to be exact], it is not possible to know the truth and in later times to substitute it with something else, which is not the truth – again, let us be careful here what we observe here – God is the truth, there is no change nor the slightest alteration possible in Him [Epistle of St. James 1: 17], therefore it is not possible for a being to be regarded in such a time changing view as we read above.

"...all its historical objectifications [of this being – ed. note] are but movements in the whole of which they are parts.both the Catholic and the Protestant interpretation of Christianity have meaning, each in its own way; they are true in their historical moment, but they can remain true only by being abandoned when their hour has come and assimilated into the newly developing whole.....Truth becomes a function of time; the true is not that which simply is true, for truth is not simply that which is; it is true for a time because it is part of the becoming of truth, which is by becoming. ...the contours between true and untrue are less sharply defined, man's basic attitude toward reality and toward himself must be altered fidelity to yesterday's truth consists precisely in abandoning it, in assimilating it into today's truth, assimilation becomes the form of preservation.

What was constitutive yesterday is constitutive today only as that which has been assimilated."

In light of this written by Cardinal Ratzinger, we can assume that today either we will assimilate to what he calls the "truth as a function of time" or else we are no longer worthy or be allowed to exist in it or allowed to preserve what is the truth to us...which is the true Catholic Faith and the true Holy Mother Roman Catholic Church teaching and preserving it.

No, let us be clear about this, it is essential to understand how deeply this error goes and that we are only allowed to accept it or else we are outside of what is the truth to such people as now the Pope Benedict XVI, but this is not the truth because God is the truth and He cannot change – period ! Neither we will change, for to us the truth is more precious than life itself, to us who want to remain true to God the truth is what guides us and all lies will be firmly, by the grace of God rejected – always !

And so it is essential to realize and more so to uphold that we will never [by the grace of God] change !

Cardinal Ratzinger continues with the following [page 16 – 17]:

"In the realm of Marxist thought,this ideology of reconciliation (as it might be called) is converted into an ideology of revolution; assimilation becomes transformation.

The concept of the continuity of being in the changeableness of time is now understood as an ideological superstructure conditioned by the interests of those who are favoured by things as they are. It is thus a response that ... demands progress and forbids lingering in the status quo....

The notion of truth comes to be regarded as an expression of the vested interest of a particular historical moment [i.e. Russian organized and still today clandestinely run communist takeover of the whole world, the fully atheistic diabolical total enslavement of all human souls if possible – ed. note]; it gives place to the notion of progress; the 'true' is whatever serves progress, that is, whatever serves the logic of history...the static vested interest of a given moment."

Martyrdom for the truth is precisely what is the opposing force to such a demagoguery presented to us as the 'truth', for only by the most necessary head-on opposition to such a nihilistic diabolical attack on the truth we can possibly remain within the sphere of the truth – that is with God our Lord Jesus Christ.

There is for us Catholics no chance of any possibility to assimilate ourselves to this or any kind of diabolical doctrine that is today presented to us in such or similar 'writings', no matter how it is called [Marxism, Communism, Atheism etc.] because to us who want to remain true to our Lord God and to Him only to serve always, there is no change whatsoever in the truth nor can the truth to us become, as Cardinal Ratzinger writes in a clearly heretical error, 'the function of time' – that is [this means to these enemies of the truth] whatever serves the history or time present and whatever is by them delivered to us to obey and follow regardless whether it is the truth or not....

In another words, there can be for us no reconciliation of the truth with lies as these or of any other kind because then we would have become enemies of the Truth Himself because He, our Lord Jesus Christ, God Himself, is the Truth.

The idea of inserting here this Marxist [i.e. communist] 'examination of their [in truth non-existent] conscience' and to state, as Cardinal Ratzinger writes, that :

In the realm of Marxist thought,this ideology of reconciliation (as it might be called) is converted into an ideology of revolution; assimilation becomes transformation. The concept of the continuity of being in the changeableness of time is now understood as an ideological superstructure conditioned by the interests of those who are favoured by things as they are.

- this idea from Cardinal Ratzinger proves the point made by us above – it is either we accept the satanic lies of the [in truth the worst heresy ever] communist atheism or we will have to bear the consequences which this satanically driven evil would try to impose on us who are true to God solely and only to God.

Yet what is of God and wills to love Him and Him only to serve cannot be possibly subdued by the devil nor by anything the infernal snake produces, including this most monstrous error this diabolical evil spirit ever came up with which is called atheistic communism and all its nuances and carefully disguised satanic lies which the devil and his willing collaborators are trying to present as the 'truth'....but they remain visible to those who are, by the most necessary grace of God, vigilant and carefully guard, by the grace of God, their true Catholic Faith of all time.

Therefore, as we continue in explaining the truth of the 3rd secret of Fatima, it is of no surprise to us to view in another writing of then Cardinal Ratzinger the following [taken from his 1980 booklet 'Crisis in the Church, page 7]:

"...there are the spiritual shocks that in recent years have had a shattering effect on the Christian scheme of things. The hunger suffered by whole nations, and the misery of war which acts on them like a scourge, positively thrust themselves on our attention and prompt us to ask ourselves, as Christians: what part did we have in them ?

What was Christianity's contribution to the fact that such a world was calmly accepted ? Indeed, what was Christianity's contribution to the further fact that, to an awful degree, it had a share in bringing such a world into being ?

Does the Christian faith really constitute a valid response to a tormented world's distress call ?

Is not the only realistic and honest programme holding out the promise of change contained, after all, in the gospel of Marxism ?

The Marxist gospel of liberation is now making powerful inroads into the mental world of Christianity. The shift from orthodoxy – correct belief – to orthopraxis – correct action – has followed almost inevitably, at the moment when Christianity's official message appears untenable [!!!!], leaving, as a last resort, only practical validity as the criterion.....From the gospel of Jesus the sole thing to survive in concrete form is its social impulse. God has become simply a code-word for our human solidarity, while Jesus merely symbolizes the revolutionary task ahead. [!!!!] – the transformation of existing social structures and the collaboration in militant action to bring about a better world. “

What more can be said or revealing to us ? Yet the question remains to be asked – is the [now] Pope Benedict XVI adhering [in full or at least in part] to the diabolical doctrine of Marxism-Leninism – i.e. Atheistic Communism ?

It is not enough for us to declare it so based on the above quotations, but at the same time and through the true safety for our immortal souls, we should instead of letting ourselves to be dragged into a possible mortal sin of detraction, to judge things in accordance with our true Catholic Faith.

This important prerequisite is to us absolutely necessary.

We are not allowed to judge a person, but only manifest intentions, quotations, deeds and so forth. It is evident that Cardinal Ratzinger does not possess the true Catholic Faith for otherwise he would not have written what is published in his books, he would have directly denounced these Marxist communist doctrines and warned the Church, as his duty to God is binding him to do, about them.

It is evident that he remains silent and is not therefore fulfilling his duty as such, as the prelate. Yet we cannot and must not question why it is so, because we simply don't know that. It is happening, it is the truth that he wrote this, yet at the same time we don't know whether he is simply a heretic, an apostate from the true Catholic Faith or a communist fully believing that the only path for the mankind lies in fully accepting the satanic atheistic doctrine of Communism and all else, and much less the Catholic Faith of all time, must be rejected and fully abandoned as such.

We do not know if this is the fact with [now] Pope Benedict XVI, but we know that he directly promotes these satanic doctrines of Marxism [i.e. Communism] by posing a direct question against the very existence of the truth [i.e. the true Catholic Faith and the Holy Mother Church as its supreme guardian instituted by God Himself, our Lord Jesus Christ] and by presenting the question of the very validity of the institution of the Holy Mother Church and Christianity [Catholic Faith of all time] as such.

So let us be careful not to fall into this error of private judgement ourselves. The sole principle and the only way to decide this matter [safely and in truth] is solely vested with the true Holy Mother Roman Catholic Church, guided by the supernatural light and power of the Holy Ghost and as such, under Her guidance no soul can possibly go astray from the truth....the Church herself is the only one allowed to decide this matter – period ! We will explain this in the conclusion of this writing.

Cardinal Ratzinger at the same time wrote in his 1987 book Principles of Catholic Theology about certain aspects of the Catholic Faith and from this writing it is possible safely to declare that his work is heretical – i.e. opposed to the true Catholic Faith of all time, moreover, it is evident that he does not possess this true Catholic Faith of all time, but a clear perversion of it.

For the sake of the truth and to defend the Catholic Faith of all time we will quote the errors and then to state the correct teaching right after – this way the heretical lies will not be spread around but reprovved by the true teaching of the Holy Mother Church instead.

On page 27 of this book he writes about baptism:

"Although baptism is the sacrament, of entrance into the community of faith, it has remained more or less on the sidelines in the renewal of the liturgical and theological awareness that has taken place in the last decades ... one cannot really properly understand baptism if one considers it only from the liturgical point of view or in the context of original sin....

...an obstacle of a very fundamental kind arises here the inner alienation with respect to this sacrament [baptism] in particular, an alienation that has its source in the modern attitude of life.

What have a few drops of water to do with an individual's relationship with God, with the meaning of his life, with his spiritual journey – this is the question that is proving a stumbling block to more and more people today....

Pastoral theologians have recently expressed the opinion that baptism and the imposition of hands [as in confirmation and holy orders] came into common usage because most Christians were, at the time, unable to write....

.....The sacrament as a preliminary stage of bureaucracy ?we must keep constantly in mind the question of the replaceability or irreplaceability of baptism.

No, this is not the truth !

Without baptism one cannot enter the kingdom of heaven – the proof comes from God Himself our Lord Jesus Christ and it is clearly recorded in the Holy Scripture and explained by the teaching of the Catechism [as the Holy Council of Trent teaches for example]:

[Gospel of St. John 3 : 3 and 5]

"Jesus answered and said to him: Amen, amen I say to thee, unless a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God."

"Jesus answered: Amen, amen I say to thee, unless a man be born again of water and the Holy Ghost, he cannot enter the kingdom of God."

The Church teaches [...born again...]:

By these words our Saviour hath declared the necessity of baptism; and by the word water it is evident that the application of it is necessary with the words. [See also St. Mathew 28 : 19]

More can be safely learned by just reading the Catechism of the Council of Trent where this question is safely and without any doubt and or mistake faithfully explained, by the power of the Holy Ghost. It is therefore, from just reading what [then] Cardinal Ratzinger wrote that he does not possess the true Catholic Faith nor his writings reflect it, especially in regards to this, to our salvation so essential, sacrament of baptism, without which we cannot enter the kingdom of God...

How is this possible and what is wrong here ? This is not an easy question to answer and we are not allowed to use speculations of any kind no matter how much they would suggest themselves. But it is at the same time evident that what we read from the same Cardinal is not only heretical [opposed to the true Catholic Faith of all time], but that he is not even trying to teach the correct teaching nor explain it in any truthful way.

The safest examination of ours can only be made by stating that the devil himself is present in this and that, as this infernal horrible evil spirit cannot bear the truth and hates the fact that our Lord and Divine Redeemer by His death on the Cross destroyed the works of the devil and paid the necessary price of redemption for the mankind which was owed to the Divine Justice due to the original sin of Adam, we all have a chance to save our souls for God [provided we remain truly Catholic and in the true Catholic Church of all time, outside of which there is no salvation !] and so the devil hating us, as he is already damned forever and will burn forever when his time is up, he is trying to destroy as many souls as possible in the mean time by influencing those in charge of the Church and introducing such diabolical lies instead. We will at the end also touch on the possibility of diabolical interference within the Church today and why that would be so and in what manner it is done.

Note to readers: There is a lot more of such erroneous data available from [then] Cardinal Ratzinger, but it is not possible to use it here because of the limited space and time to produce the present publication, yet it is the truth that this particular book of his is not only terrifying in its heretical content, but that most of it represents nothing which can be safely called Catholic ... it is an entirely different 'religion' the [then] Cardinal Ratzinger practices...it is not Catholic.

Let us continue to quote more from this work of Cardinal Ratzinger [Principles of Catholic Theology]:

"The sacrament [baptism], as the fundamental form of the Christian liturgy...it gives religion both a cosmic and a historical dimension and points to cosmos and history as the place of our encounter with God...."

"...baptism establishes a communion of name with the Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. It is in this respect somewhat analogous to the act of marriage."

....

"Being baptized would thus be the call to share in Jesus' relationship with God..."

I have to stop here for a moment and ask – our Lord is God Himself and so how is it possible to claim that He has some kind of relationship with God without fully and correctly explaining it ? But the Cardinal gives answer to this question himself on page 33, again in error:

"It will always be hard for man to speak the truth and to abide in the truth. That is why he takes refuge in the lie that will make life easier for him.....Truth, if it is consistently maintained, is always perilous....."

And in the measure in which [a man] holds fast to himself, in which he withdraws into the safety of a lie, he loses himself.....

Baptism means, then, that we lose ourselves as a separate independent 'I' and find ourselves again in new "I". It is the sacrament of death and - by that fact, but also only by that fact - the sacrament of resurrection...."

"The baptismal formula, which is, properly speaking, a dialogical creed, presupposes a long learning process...."

...it is possible for the water of baptism not only to represent the mystery of the Cross of Jesus Christ but, at the same time, to serve as a reminder of the great experience of death and rescue in the Old Testament, especially of the miracle of the Red Sea, which thus become types and foreshadowings of the Cross of Christ and point to it as the mystical center of the whole of salvation history.

That conversion is a death-event, that the way to truth and the hazard of love lead through the Red Sea, that the Promised Land can be reached only through the mortal passion of truth...."

Faith is a gift received through the community [he means the Church – ed. note], which is itself given." -

[Ed. note – NO! The true Catholic Faith does not come from or through the ‘community’, but it is a direct gift of God !]

Anyone who is aware of the contradictory situations in which Christianity is involved today [!!!!], of how, by reason of its monarchical and nationalistic structures, it has come to be regarded as an appurtenance [ed. note – in disagreement] of Marxist thought, might indeed be tempted to consider the faith of Christians as a useless placebo that can be used as one will because it has no content of its own.

....there also exists a view...that belief in God is but the expedient of a particular social group, in terms of which it can be fully explained and with the disappearance of which it, too, will disappear.... It was invented [this belief in God] to ensure domination and to keep man subservient to existing powers....”

I am not making this up, he truly wrote this demagoguery and it is still available for the Catholic eye to read, which is something extremely horrifying. This is the true meaning of the 3rd Secret of Fatima in life.

It is true that right after this unbelievable assertion the Cardinal wrote “that a world under God’s sway is quite different from the world without God – that nothing remains the same if God is taken away”, but this is not enough to believe that [now the Pope himself] does possess the true Catholic Faith – if he had, he would not have written anything of the kind as above quoted nor he would have allowed for the Catholic faithful to let it be read and be thus poisoned by it – the devil is in action here, this is absolutely evident.

I have to be honest with you, my dear brothers and sisters in the true Catholic Faith, I had no idea that the things were so bad and for such a long time, but when we consider the scandals [visiting Muslim mosque or the ‘inter-religious’ gatherings in Assisi etc.], we come to the conclusion that this evil which is happening through these people to the Holy Mother Church is real and it comes from the devil himself.

It is not possible to solely claim that they, as Cardinal Ratzinger [back then, now the Pope Benedict XVI] have just lost their faith, because it is evident from this alone and other examples of their evils that they have not even received the true Catholic Faith nor they wish to receive it from God and practice it – in fact it is evident and absolutely safe to declare that these people effectively and systematically fight against the Holy Mother Church, that they, as Cardinal Ratzinger back then admits, in this particular book anyway, that they [as he says it himself to have Protestant friends] are by adhering to Protestant heresies [Luther and so on] are turning for many years now the Catholic Church into a Protestant sect instead – which is again the work of the devil and the, in the beginning of this article quoted, Divine warning to His Holiness Pope Leo XIII.

How can it be opposed we ask ourselves ? Pray the rosary and sanctify yourselves so that the devil cannot pervert you and most importantly your immortal soul with such satanic lies that he has disseminated by using these wilful heretical apostate collaborators of his – that is the way now to protect one’s soul from the eternal perdition – to practice the true Catholic Faith and always rejecting any such satanic lies.

Part 2 – the Arian heresy and the Vatican II ‘council’

In his book Principles of Catholic Theology [Ignatius Press, San Francisco, CA, U.S.A., 1987], Cardinal Ratzinger wrote, among other heretical errors, also about the divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ. From just reading these horrifying pages of his, where he indirectly [or almost directly as such] denies it, we get to see, once again, the true meaning of the punishment of God – the 3rd Secret of Fatima – the punishment of those whom God foreseen as not willing to defend Him, the Truth and Justice of God and the Holy Mother Roman Catholic Church with it, against arch-enemy the devil and his willing collaborators.

This is the punishment of these souls who dare to claim to be Catholic, but remain only in apathy, indifference or at least in inaction while the very ark of salvation of theirs, the Holy Mother Church is being decimated by Her very enemies, the devil in charge of this evil !

[Page 70 – Principles of Catholic Theology of Cardinal Ratzinger – he quotes this certain Heisenberg, without any apparent disagreement with him !]:

“Is it perhaps correct to say that “God” is merely function of a particular praxis ? [Could] God be relegated to the same level of reality as certain imaginary numbers in the field of mathematics that do not exist as natural numbers but on which whole branches of mathematics have been built, so that ‘there are such numbers after all’....Would it not be possible in religion, too....to regard the expression ‘there is’ [ed. note – evidently this means God Himself – whether He is or not !!!!] as the ascent of abstraction ?

“Is God a kind of moral fiction in terms of which it is possible to present spiritual context in an abstract and synoptical way ?”

Pray the rosary and sanctify yourselves this way, for there is no other more efficacious remedy of such evils as these – again, even though we are not allowed to pass private judgement on such heretical and on atheism bordering writings, we are also not allowed by the true Catholic Church to heed them and to accept them, even though they may come from the visible prelate of the Church, now in fact the Pope himself. The only way that this man can be brought to justice is by a lawful council of the true Roman Catholic Church – we are not allowed [I do stress this point once again] to make private judgement and to deny one’s authority [all authority comes from God], but at the same time we are also not free to give ear to heretical writings etc. Which are clearly opposed to the true Catholic Faith.....

No matter how much the [back then] Cardinal Ratzinger may have had disagreement with such anti-Catholic heretical and atheistic errors, he also is not allowed to write them and allow them to be published and to be seen by the Catholic laity because then the truth is attacked by these satanic lies and he allows it to be – which is a great evil ! No Catholic worthy of that name is capable to write something like this above quoted [as Cardinal Ratzinger wrote] and remain true Catholic – period !

Cardinal Ratzinger continues – he confirms in his writings the Arian heresy... [Page 73]

“...Jesus [ed. note – true Catholics, mindful of the Ten Commandments say our Lord instead...] is truly “Son” in his whole existence, is one who receives his inmost being from another....

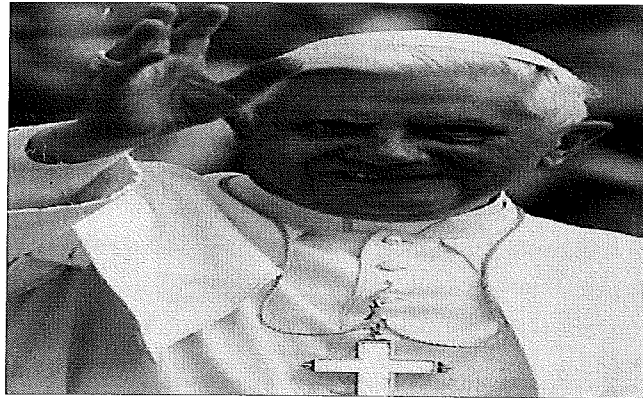

According to the Teaching of the Holy Mother Roman Catholic Church [Summa Theologica of St. Thomas Aquinas etc.] God is His own Being, His own Essence, His own Existence, and so it is not possible to say that our Lord Jesus Christ ‘receives his inmost being from another’ – this is clearly a heresy, the denial of the divinity of Christ by [then] Cardinal Ratzinger – he even calls our Lord a radical Jew [page 99, Principles of Catholic Theology], yet again – only lawful council of the true Catholic Church can pass a lawful sentence and not anybody private...yet we must warn about this each other because the true Catholic Faith of all time is in danger – this is our duty in front of God !

There are many more examples of Cardinal Ratzinger’s heretical writings and his direct or indirect denial of the divinity of Christ [or at least publishing the heretical ‘teachings’ of atheists and non-Catholics and letting them openly stand as such for the Catholic faithful to read – and what is even more evil, to call it perspective or a viewpoint as if such heretics and atheists had any part in teaching the truth themselves while they do not belong to God and therefore cannot possess nor teach the truth because God is the truth, yet again, let us be clear about this, although it is bordering on a blasphemy to allow our Lord to be called a revolutionary because some atheistic freethinker may have done so, yet we are not free to pass judgement as such, this is solely for the true Holy Mother Church to do and none other – in the lawful council.

One last erroneous thing coming from Cardinal Ratzinger – it is about the Vatican II ‘council’. In his book The Ratzinger Report, he allowed to be published on page 28 the following direct lie of his and thus Cardinal Ratzinger’s [now the Pope Benedict XVI’s] affirmation of his true apostasy:

“Vatican II today stands in a twilight.... By the ‘conservative wing’ it is....viewed as the cause of the present decadence of the Catholic Church and even judged as an apostasy from the Vatican I and from the Council of Trent ... it must be stated that Vatican II is upheld by the same authority as Vatican I and the Council of Trentand also with regard to its contents, Vatican II is in the strictest continuity with both previous councils and incorporates their texts word for word in decisive points.....”

Conclusion

It is evident by just looking at this picture of now Pope Benedict XVI that he is not Catholic, because no truly Catholic soul would allow himself stained by a Protestant ‘cross’ and not to wear the true crucifix instead. The above picture comes from the Vatican own and printed leaflet that came to this author’s hands as if by accident, yet it is absolutely evident that the will of God was and is that it was [and now is] that this deplorable and clearly unimpeachable evidence showing picture be published so that the true Catholic souls may be the more convinced of this author’s truthful account of the true Third Secret of Fatima. This picture proves it so even more, adding the above quotations from then Cardinal Ratzinger’s own books.

We all have to stand one day before the judgement seat of our Lord and I do not wish to be there and have to hear that I was one of the silent ones who allowed the divine institution of the Holy Mother Church to be dragged into such a diabolical morass, a true mire of satanic [atheistic, heretical and so forth] lies and errors and that I did nothing or very little to oppose them or at least allowed them to stand and remain unchallenged with the Catholic truth of all time, which is our true Catholic Faith.

There is one point to make before the end of this publication – the Fellayan heresy which states [as its author, bishop Bernard Fellay, the superior general of the Society of St. Pius X produced it and continues to uphold it as such], so this direct heresy claims that God hears petitions of unrepentant sinners, in this case, to be exact, that God will accept the [once again] proposed to be done ‘consecration of Russia’ to Our Lady’s Immaculate Heart performed by the Pope [Benedict XVI] and the bishops [including the ‘Novus Ordo’ modernist heretics also] and subsequently produce the miracle of conversion of the still communist Russia, the country turning into a Catholic one.

It must be clear to everyone who still possesses the true Catholic Faith that, after reading the above heretical, atheistic and pro-Marxist quotes from [then] Cardinal Ratzinger, as they still remain open to the public to be read and are not publicly denounced by [now] the Pope Benedict XVI and the correct true Catholic Faith fully and unconditionally affirmed by the same, that it cannot be possible that such a miracle will be sanctioned and performed by God because, as we know from the Gospel of St. John chapter 9, God does not hear sinners – that is He does not grant them their petitions.

[St. John IX : 30 – 33]

"30 The man answered and said to them: Why, herein is a wonderful thing, that you know not from whence he is, and he hath opened my eyes.

31 Now we know that God doth not hear sinners: but if a man be a server of God, and doth his will, him he heareth." 32 From the beginning of the world it hath not been heard, that any man hath opened the eyes of one born blind.

33 Unless this man were of God, he could not do any thing.

It is a heresy to claim that such a miracle could be granted by God while at the same time, with full knowledge of the truth about these apostates, bishop Fellay knows that they have not fully and most necessarily publicly repented, amended and took completely and in full back all their evils they have caused and done to the true Catholic Faith and the true Holy Mother Roman Catholic Church over the years since the Vatican II and so forth.

God will judge those who lie and deceive, who know the truth, as bishop Fellay knows it, and yet continues with the heretical lie instead. Those who follow the lie and do not love the truth and moreover are not willing to uphold and defend it against the heretical lies of any kind, will have to answer to God for it.

Please reconsider where you truly stand with God, whether you love our Lord and the Holy Mother Church or whether, lazy to learn the truth or satisfied with everything you are told regardless of whether it is the truth or not, your conscience bears you witness that whatever you chose that you will receive....

Sister Lucia has revealed the 3rd Secret of Fatima in 1957 to Rev. Fr. Fuentes:

"... it is in the Church itself where the devil has his followers and his supporters who forge ahead with fearless audacity. Facing them are so many fearful ones who do not have the courage to commit themselves !"

It was then Cardinal Ratzinger himself who kept Sister Lucia silent all the years she lived after this interview.

This is the true 3rd Secret of Fatima – the devil has installed into the highest places of the Church those who are his wilful collaborators – they know the truth but are denying it in their evil deeds. These are the enemies of the Church, instead of God they serve the devil instead.

If they do not repent of their evils they will have to bear the eternal infernal consequences – they will burn in Hell forever !

Please, my dear brothers and sisters in the true Catholic Faith, do not let yourselves to be dragged into this satanic mire because then you will be right where the devil wants you to be – in mortal sin of heresy, accepting satanic lies instead of, even at the cost of suffering and hardship, upholding and safeguarding the truth, with the ultimate and never wavering love for our Lord.

In Christ and Mary, Yours truly J. Malina, Catholic

P.S. At the present time the communist operation is concerned with all [in future] opposing organizations and groups of people, which includes most of all the true Catholic Church, so that these enemies of all truth and justice are collecting personal data on all such future anti-communist opponents. It is a matter of true prudence therefore not to fill out any political and religious papers that may be containing your personal data etc., so that your safety would be safeguarded, but it is also necessary to actively defend the true Holy Mother Church, with all possible vigour and power available, to stay away from doubtful sacraments and from heretics, and it is also necessary at the same time to protect your soul from all attacks of the devil – the Rosary. Amen.
